

2007 Summary

The 2007 FWS Retiree reunion was another great event. Over 100 retirees and family plus current Fish & Wildlife service employees, gathered at the National Conservation Training Center, Shepherdstown, West Virginia for the weekend events of May 18. There were ample opportunities for renewing old friendships with former colleagues in a social setting. Charles Hasty presented his usual standout “Helping Hands” informative presentation. The presentation is focused on updating needed information for retired government employees, with specific advice and knowledge for retired FWS employees. Also, distinguished author and lecturer Dr. Robert Pyle made a presentation on, “No Child Left Inside: Keeping Our Grandkids in the Neighborhood of Life”, a subject the Fish & Wildlife Service has embraced as a priority in its program. During the banquet, the sixth annual Fish and Wildlife Service Heritage Award for 2007 was presented in a ceremony to Jerry & Judy Grover, Denny and Kathy Holland and Jerry and Pat French for their’ “unstinting help in creating the Service’s Heritage Committee and initiating the Service’s retiree association.”
